At 10:55 p.m., 1/27/74, SA [redacted] Philadelphia Office, advised weekend duty Supervisor [redacted] that what appears to be the personal address/telephone book of Donald Nixon, President Nixon's brother, was discovered in the VIP lounge, United Airlines, at Philadelphia International Airport, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, where Donald Nixon had been a guest. This information was furnished to the Philadelphia Office at 10:00p.m. by [redacted] United Airlines representative, whereupon the Philadelphia Office obtained the book for transmittal to appropriate authorities.

Supervisor [redacted] Special Coordination Unit, CI-4 Section, suggested the book be turned over to Secret Service in Philadelphia. This instruction was relayed to SA [redacted] Philadelphia, who advised this would be done first thing in the morning, Monday, 1/28/74.
